

Te Pūtea Matua | Reserve Bank of New Zealand

Position title	Advisor
Group	Money
Reports to	Manager Cash Production and Circulation
Reference Level	18

Te Pūtea Matua, the Reserve Bank of New Zealand (RBNZ), is New Zealand's central bank. Toitū Te Ohanga, Toitū Te Ōranga - We enable economic wellbeing and prosperity for all New Zealanders.

Our vision is Great Team, Best Central Bank, expressed as Matangirua Ki Matangireia – working as one towards our ultimate purpose. We operate with Tauria / Integrity, Wānanga / Innovation and Taura/ Inclusion.

Kaupapa rōpū | Group purpose

The Money Group is responsible for leading policy and operational activities relating to our role as steward of New Zealand's monetary system, including the money and cash system, protecting the purchasing power of our money through setting monetary policy, implementing monetary policy in financial markets, and operating the large value payment and settlement systems across our balance sheet.

Kaupapa mahi | Role purpose

The Advisor leads policy analysis and research to ensure our banknotes and coins continue to meet Aotearoa's needs. The role provides expert advice to inform policy, regulatory frameworks, and strategic priorities (including access to cash and financial inclusion), and supports and influences senior decision-making. As an experienced team member, the Advisor contributes across the Money and Cash Directorate, builds organisational capability by mentoring junior colleagues, and driving thought leadership within the cash Production and Circulation team.

Ngā kawenga matua | Key responsibilities

- Operating with a one team mentality by collaborating with others to enable 'best for RBNZ' outcomes.
- Demonstrating our values and behaviours consistently to support our desired culture.
- Contributing as required to the delivery of Group and cross-functional strategies, activities, initiatives and programmes / projects.

- Supporting the integration of Te Tiriti, Te Ao Māori and diversity, equity and inclusion within our organisation.
- Taking proactive responsibility for your own health, safety, and wellbeing, and fostering a safe and healthy work environment by identifying, reporting, and managing risks and hazards.
- Developing and maintaining external relationships as required.
- Operating in line with RBNZ's policies and procedures.
- Developing and leading plans to implement Bank-wide organisational and/or policy strategy, engaging with internal and external stakeholders in line with strategic direction.
- Providing solutions to complex issues through sound judgement that fosters trust and confidence from management and key stakeholders.
- Providing thought leadership based on research and analysis, to best understand and respond to the wider global and domestic context in which Te Pūtea Matua operates.
- Leading analytical and policy projects, providing guidance or coaching to junior colleagues.
- Conducting research using a range of analytical techniques, utilising own knowledge and experience and effectively drawing on that of others. Writing and presenting this analysis, ensuring policy insights are clearly articulated.
- Providing subject matter and / or technical advice to colleagues and across RBNZ, to support knowledge and understanding, capability building, and inclusion of high quality, timely and accessible information.
- Proactively building and maintaining positive relationships at a peer, team, Bank and stakeholder level and engaging with those in the wider public sector, other central banks, and other relevant organisations to enrich and broaden our analysis.
- Collaborating with colleagues across the wider Bank, to strengthen our analytical frameworks and maximise insights regarding areas of common interest to our various functions.

Wheako whai take | Relevant experience

- A post-graduate degree in economics, statistics, data science, finance, or related disciplines
- A minimum of five years relevant experience in in the fields of banking, law, accounting, macroeconomics, economics, or at other central banks.
- Relevant experience in cash industry, cash operations, and logistics will be an added advantage.

- Experience in leading and delivering statistical, analytical, policy and / or financial initiatives and workstreams.
- An interest in and solid understanding of the global and domestic issues facing the New Zealand economy.
- Ability to identify policy relevant issues and provide leadership in a dynamic and open team environment.
- An effective collaborative approach that draws on the knowledge and skills of colleagues and other stakeholders, and constructively contributes to the work of others.
- Strong communication skills with the ability to communicate complex information to technical and non-specialist audiences in both oral and written form.
- Sound judgement and the ability to think holistically across a broad range of issues.
- Demonstrates knowledge and application of Te Tiriti o Waitangi.

Ā mātou whanonga | RBNZ behaviours

As important as what we deliver is how we deliver. We hold people front and centre to our mahi, our way of working is guided by our values which shape our behaviours. Our Individual Performance Framework details these expectations.